

North Microseris

Microseris alpestris

Plant and Leaves:

- Plant erect each stem holding a single flower head; stem hairless below cup of green bracts that hold flower head.
- The leaves are basal, hairless, spoon-shaped to lanceolate, 2-6 inches (5-15 cm) long with a few slender to many teeth